Buys an excellent electric fan, which we are just now specializing on, and of which we have sold several dozen the last few days. In fact, we have had to reorder several times. It runs at two speeds and consumes in electricity less than a cent an hour. We have larger ones at proportionate prices—something to suit the size of the room and the use intended as well as the pocketbook. Come in and let us show you the stock. Also Washers, Sewing Machines, Cooking Utensils and the like.

Many thoughtful people hesitate to accept a store's hospitality, fearing they will "bother someone." We do not want you to gain or retain such an impression regarding your welcome here. We want you to make our store your "downtown home"—we want that homey friendly feeling to enter all our dealings.

Just now you'll find many desirable and unusual electric bargains all through this store. These will make your visits doubly pleasant and profitable. We appreciate your patronage and shall constantly strive to make your every visit to this store so pleasant and so satisfactory that you shall always prefer to trade with us.

Cattle and sheep are dying throughout Grand and San Juan counties for lack of water and feed in large numbers. Owners are hauling water in tanks and barrels to their herds and flocks.

Wool Consumption in April.

Consumption of wool by manufacturers in April was slightly less than in March, but more than in either January or February, according to the monthly wool consumption report just issued by the Bureau of Markets. April consumption was 76,780,000 pounds, grease equivalent, compared to 71,960,000 used in March, 62,796,000 in February and 45,300,000 in January.

Bucks of wool consumed in April by classes, in pounds, were: grease wool, 42,715,619; scourred, 12,165,198, and polled, 2,772,421. Consumption by states for all classes of wool in pounds, was: Massachusetts, 24,831,678; Rhode Island, 7,221,206; Pennsylvania, 6,480,612; New Jersey, 6,072,962; New York, 1,082,971; New Hampshire, 1,389,238; Connecticut, 1,685,644; Ohio, 1,333,123; Maine, 918,772, and all other states, 2,242,215.

Out of five hundred and eighty-five schedules sent out five hundred and eight manufacturers reported wool consumed in April, sixty-three no wool used, nine returned schedules stating that their raw materials consisted of lams, yarns and waste, while five failed to reply. The five manufacturers who did not return schedules have a capacity of twenty-five sets of woolen cards and five worsted combs.

SHE SURELY KNOWS

Your fashionable woman knows that her figure is helped out with her corset. She may have beautiful, natural lines from the artist's point of view, but she knows that her form must be modeled by the corset in order to have the contour which is necessary for the fashionable dress. Madame Grace Corsets represent the best there is in corset designing and making. Every part of the figure in a Grace corset is relaxed. The corset is scientifically boned with flexible boning, and put together so securely that it cannot fail to fit comfortably if the proper model is selected. Madame Grace Corsets are not expensive—they parallel the highest priced corsets in style and beauty at much lower prices.

OILMEN SEND EXPERT INTO FIELD EAST OF THIS CITY

C. M. Ruth, a geologist from the East, was here all last week making report on the oil and shale possibilities of this section for A. D. Lorimer and G. W. Sparke. He went over the Cat Canyon section carefully and also visited Woodside and other points to the east. He was very disengaged with all and gave out nothing that would indicate what he thinks of the country in sections or as a whole. He was quoted about while here by A. J. Lee, local representative of Lorimer and Sparke. The latter is expected in Price within a few days from Wyoming, when something further may be known.

THE GOOD THINGS TO EAT

When you want to serve something different on wheatless or meatless days, call up and let us suggest a few of the many appetizing and wholesome foods we carry in cans, package or bulk. Fresh fruits and vegetables at all times. You get the same prompt and courteous attention when you phone or send the children as you do when you come in person.

Dealing Here Pays

This is a general store and we are supposed to sell about everything, and we live up to the general supposition. You can buy anything you want here from hardware to groceries—from needles to a good smoke. It pays to buy from us, because we sell an enormous amount of goods and our expenses are comparatively light. We can therefore sell at a closer margin of profit than some others.

We don't want to say anything unkind of our esteemed competitors, but we do want you to know the advantage and economy of dealing at this store. You can't lose, and you will gain. Now, doesn't this line of argument appeal straight to your good common sense?

Farm Machinery

We sell only such implements and machinery as are made primarily to work with and not just to sell—the celebrated McCormick line. You might just as well have the best as some inferior brand, as they cost no more if you come here for them. We invite you here to inspect them. We have everything you need or can use on your farm. A judicious choice from our stock will double the output of your farm with the same amount of labor.

He reports that the peaches from that district will be ready about July 1st, and says if there was a good automobile road between Moab and Thompsons as there ought to be, fresh fruit could be laid down here on short order, but the roads are simply terrible and ought to invite the attention of the state roads authorities. He doubts very much the wisdom of building around the old beaten track between Moab and Thompsons to save a slight grade. Dry farming in San Juan county is in a bad condition, in fact, the drought outside Little San Juan Valley is more extreme than he has known in thirty-one years. Unless rain comes within the next ten or twelve days, the wheat on the dry farms will be a total loss.—Desert News, 7th.
